Numb. 1613

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday May 2. to Thursday May 5. 1681.

Vienna, April 24.

IT having been represented to the Emperor, that the necessary Preparations which must be made for the meeting of the Dyet, cannot be finished by the twenty eighth of this Month, the Emperor has thought fit to Adjourn the same till the third of the next, and intends to be that day himself at Neustadt. The great men of Hungary that are here, continue in the mean time to have daily Conferences with the Emperors Ministers, in order to the removing out of the way whatever they think may hinder the good success of the Dyet, at which the Prince of Swartzenburg will assist as the Emperors chief Commissioner. The last Letters from Hungary gave us an Account that the Malecontents, imagining that after Count Teckeley and other their chief Commanders had made their Peace with the Emperor, it would be a difficult thing for them to get their Wives and Children out of the Turkish Territories, where they now are for their greater security, had many of them assembled together, and marched towards Varadin, and that meeting with a party of Turks, Commanded by Hussaine Bassa, they had a very sharp Rencounter with them, wherein the Hungarians had the better, above 200 Turks, and Hussaine Bassa himself being killed upon the place. We have not as yet any account of the arrival of the Count d' Altemps the Emperors Ambassador at Warsaw, which we the more impatiently expect, for that there are Matters now Treating at the Dyet, which may have great influence upon Affairs in these parts.

Hamburg, May 1. They write from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark parted from thence on the the 28th past on his Journey towards these Parts, that he intended to be back again before the end of this Month, and that soon after he would go for Norway, the men of War that are to carry him, having Orders to be ready against that time. From Oldenburg they tell us, that the Danish Troops were drawing together in that Countrey, and that they would make a Body of 8 or 10000 Men, which the King thinks necessary it seems to have at hand, that he may not be opposed in the Design he has of possessing himself of that Countrey; but the motion of these Troops gives a jealousie to the Dukes of Lunenburg, who we are informed, are likewise drawing their Forces together.

Hamburg, May 2. The King of Denmark will be to morrow at Gluckstadt, seven German miles from hence, where Count Berka the Emperors Minister (who arrived here yesterday) intends to wait upon his Majesty to morrow. The King will hasten to Oldenburg, where he will have together a Body of 10 or 12000 Men, that he may not be disturbed in the Design he has of Building a Fort on the Weser. Our Letters from Dantzick tell us, that the Dyet at Warsaw continued assembled; That the Negotiation with the Moscovite Ambassadors was not yet finished, but that it was believed it would be very suddainly; That the Moscovite Ambassadors insisted to have 10000 Polish Horse to joyn their Armies, and that the King of Poland had offered 6000; That two Expresses had been sent to Moscow by the said Ambassadors, to give the Czar an Account of the Progress they had made towards the concluding the Alliance, and to receive his Orders upon the Points that remained undetermined.

Gluckstadt, April 23. This day the King of Denmark was very magnificently entertained by the Duke of Holstein at Sleswick, and to morrow his Majesty is expected here, but will not make any stay in this place. We are informed that the Luneburg Troops have received Orders to be in a readiness to march, occasioned, as we suppose, by the King of Denmarks drawing so considerable a Force together in the Country of Oldenburg.

Berlin, May 2. The Dyet of Poland is not yet ended, nor the Alliance with the [illegible] though the Poles have at last consented to the 10000 Horse which the Czar Demanded to joyn his Army, which was the main difficulty that remained; for the Moscovite Ambassadors, who had sent an Express to Moscow, to give the Czar an Account that the Poles were not willing to consent to that Condition (as it seems they Declared upon the Ambassadors first arrival) will not now accept of it, till they receive the Czars Answer to what they wrote. The Court continues still here, but intends to return to Potsdam on the 6th of this Month, and soon after it will remove to Magdeburg and Cleves.

Francfort, May 3. On the 29th past the States Assembled at Ratisbonne finally Resolved, that an Army of 48000 Foot, 10000 Horse, and 2000 Dragoons, should be forthwith raised, and kept on foot three years for the Defence and Security of the Empire; and that the Emperor should be made acquainted with this their Resolution; and that at the same time their humble Thanks should be returned to his Imperial Majesty for the great care he has had of their common preservation, which they will always preserve a most dutiful Sence of. The Sovereign Chamber at Brisac has published a Decree, by which all Persons that are not Natural Subjects of the French King, are disabled to hold any Offices, Dignities, or Ecclesiastical Preferments.

Hummelingen, May 7. The Duke and Dutchess of Zell with the Princess their Daughter, the Prince and Princess of Orange, the Prince of Hanover, and a great many other Persons of Quality have been the